

BEFORE THE SEA CALLS

Jon Heslop

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 2/4 time signature. It consists of four staves of music with lyrics underneath. The lyrics are: "I wake-en in the night trem-ble-ing with fear then I hear you breath-ing qui-et-ly be-side me. I reach to hold you tight, clasp you warm and near, look-ing to your arms to hold and hide me. — Just one more time won't you dance the Dance with with me? Just one more time won't you sing the Song with me? Just one more time be-fore the sea calls one more time".

I waken in the night trembling with fear
then I hear you breathing quietly beside me.
I reach to hold you tight, clasp you warm and near,
looking for your arms to hold and hide me.

*Just one more time won't you dance the Dance with me?
Just one more time won't you sing the Song with me?
Just one more time before the sea calls one more time*

I know that you may go at any time at all.
I will see you running down the busy street
and I will miss you so ev'ry time they call.
I hate the sound of shouts and pounding feet.

I'm trying not to think of what you are doing.
I can hear the thunder rolling up above.
Someone's on the brink, dirty weather's brewing
but no-one needs you more than me, my love.

I watch as you come in dancing on the sea.
The boat's hauled to the shed and safely locked inside.
you turn around and grin, walk up the street to me.
my heart's so full of love and joy and pride.