

Teresa
(Ron Baxter)

Ch. By the shore Teresa stands
Every tide, aye every tide
As the boats come home to land
She's there every tide
"Do you think he'll land today?
Or missed the tide & been delayed?"
The others know, but they won't say.
So she's there every tide.

Ch
"He says he'll give up the sea
Come ashore, and marry me"
That's the reason, can't you see
That she's there every tide.

Ch
But he's not coming home this tide
Not this tide, nor any tide
Teresa n'er will be his bride
Though she's there every tide

Ch
For in December '59
Off Tiree his ship went down
But her love he n'er was found
So she waits on every tide.

Repeat 1st Verse?

Ron 2006